7 Calling the Twelve to him, he began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over impure spirits. 8 These were his instructions: "Take nothing for the journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in your belts. 9 Wear sandals but not an extra shirt. 10 Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. 11 And if any place will not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake the dust off your feet as a testimony against them." 12 They went out and preached that people should repent. 13 They drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with oil and healed them.

“The implication of this act of Jesus is that no amount of hearing, teaching or observing miracles or even being with Jesus, is enough. {The disciples} must risk themselves in dependence on the gospel and the power that accompanies it! There is enormous satisfaction and challenge in hear the word and seeing the mighty deeds. But the real test, and the true moment of growth, arrives when I myself am able to speak a word of witness, or do some gospel deed, in which my reputation, my being depends on there being a power there to sustain me.” – Donald English

Matthew 28:18–20 18 Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”
